

The college has a research committee and it has its own Code of Ethics to Check Malpractices and Plagiarism in Research. The college research committee has its goals as mentioned below:

- ❖ To encourage quality researches,
- ❖ To act fairly, honestly, and with respect for others,
- ❖ To create and maintain an environment for the free exchange of ideas,
- ❖ To celebrate diversity and global understanding,
- ❖ To uphold academic honesty and integrity,

The research committee has its own code of ethics to check malpractices and plagiarism in research in terms of the commitment in terms of legality, trust, respect, fairness, responsibility, honesty, integrity and dissemination of intellectual property.

Legality

The college has the code of ethics to prevent plagiarism and to protect intellectual property through awareness about the intellectual property rights and copyrights acts.

Trust

The faculties of the college maintain harmony and trust among them and inspire the students to take up activity related to research maintain the trust.

Respect

An environment of respect among students, faculties, staffs is created for academic research and other social activities.

Fairness

A free and fair practice is encouraged in maintaining institutional standard practices, procedures in all kinds of academic and administrative activities.

Responsibility

The faculties take responsibility for institutional functions and promote the sense of responsibility in the student community towards the institution, family, society and the nation.

Honesty

Honesty is given utmost importance in executing all activities related to the institution, academic functions, research activities, maintaining relationship between staffs and students and also in all kinds of creative activities in the academic and social capacity.

Integrity

The faculties must maintain integrity to the institution as well as nation as good citizen of the country.

Dissemination

The faculties of the college should disseminate research findings to the concerned in a fair and honest manner so that the outcomes of the research become the resource for the society as well as for the college.